Project Description:
Overall Project Goal

The main goal of the project is to organize a set of workshops (WS) whereby the concept of Service Learning (SL) shall be conveyed to tackle problems relating to

(1) raising awareness for the necessity of a correct attitude towards Persons with Disabilities (PwDs) and

(2) enabling, promoting and guaranteeing equal rights of PwDs in line with the UN Convention on the rights of PwDs (Art.24&8).

Primarily, educators and students are the targeted groups. However, through the SL case-studies (CS) impact on the wider community is inevitable.

Project Objectives

(1) present, adopt and implement the SL concept;

(2) raise awareness for correct attitude and diminish discrimination against PwDs, disseminate information about their individual needs;

(3) utilize positive practices/existing methodologies to identify and analyze various kinds of handicaps, understand, tolerate differences and include specific needs in the classroom, adjust teaching methods and suggest possible steps to make learning process easier;

Equal rights for ALL

Goals and Objectives:

(a) The overall project goal is to organize a set of WS, where the SL concept is presented, adopted and implemented to tackle problems relating to (1) raising awareness for correct attitude towards PwDs and (2) enabling, promoting and guaranteeing their equal rights in line with the UN Convention on the rights of PwDs.

Primarily, targeted are educators and students. Thus, the WS serve as training seminars for the educators. However, since each student can be regarded to as a potential future educator, especially students that major in education, pedagogy, special education and rehabilitation, we envisage conveying the SL concept to all levels of education. This is where we draw the sustainability of our project.

Finally, through the SL case-studies to be implemented in the project, impact on the wider community is inevitable.

(b) Implementation of the key project objectives:

(1) The six WS are the nexus tying the complete project and building the network among all project participants and relevant stakeholders. I.e. the WS are where State Alumni and
